Richard Baldwin, Charles Wyplosz : The Economics of European Integration before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Economics of European Integration:

Now in its 5th edition, the Economics of European Integration guides students through the facts, theories and controversies surrounding the dynamics of European economics. With clear and comprehensive discussions about European history, law, institutions, politics and policies, students are encouraged to explore and analyse the contemporary status of integration within the European Union. Designed for students taking modules in European economics, the text provides in-depth analysis of economics arguments with examples, illustrations and questions to help bring this thought-provoking subject to life.

About the Author Richard Baldwin and Charles Wyplosz are Professors of International Economics at the Graduate

Institute of International Studies, Geneva. Both authors are leading economists and teachers and are active as editors on a number of prestigious journals, including Economic Policy.
